

Here at Holly Ridge Center, we value the tribes of the Pacific Northwest. November is Native American Heritage Month when we celebrate the people who were on this land before us. "Sharing our World: Animals of the Native Northwest Coast" is a beautifully illustrated book explaining the cultural meanings of animals in the Pacific Northwest from the following tribes--Nuxalk, 'Namgis, Coast Salish, Kwakwaka'wakw, Haisla, Heiltsuk, Haida, Bella Bella, Tsimshian, Kwa Na Ki Nulth and Nuchatlant Nations.

Sharing our World - Animals of the native Northwest coast

To learn more about different tribes in the Pacific Northwest and from the different illustrators and authors of the book please check out the Coast Salish Nation website.

<https://www.amnh.org/exhibitions/permanent/northwest-coast/coast-salish>

Local tribes in Kitsap County include Suquamish Tribe and the S'Kallam Tribe:

<https://suquamish.nsn.us/>

<https://www.pgst.nsn.us/home>